Egg Delivery service

This exceptional pop-up book, with four ingenious fold out scenes, will make a great gift in spring as it is about eggs - and it's not just about eggs! It's an exciting story, from making the chocolate eggs to final delivery. Children will be able to look inside the factory where the chocolate eggs are made. It's a real production line, with real people! As it always happens, just before the deadline there's a problem – the chocolate is melting! How can the factory workers solve the problem? They will just have to make all the eggs again and deliver them as fast as possible! Just in time delivery has been invented here! In each of the scenes there is fun to be had finding ten objects hidden in the picture.
